

Transition Points in Graduate Programs

Program: Master of Music – Music Education

- Admission to University and Program Candidacy
 - Process: Graduate Studies Application Process
 - Requirements:
 - Undergraduate GPA ≥ 3.0
 - Submission of GRE – General Test Scores
 - Initial Certification – New York state – to teach Music K-12
 - Completion of Baccalaureate degree in Music Education
 - Two letters of recommendation
 - Admission to SUNY Fredonia
 - For Recital Track option: Successful audition into the School of Music
- Admission to Capstone and Structured Field Experience (MUED 621)
 - Process: In interview with candidates' assigned graduate music education adviser, candidate documents intent to take MUED 621 Foundations III (capstone and field experience course)
 - Requirements:
 - Minimum overall graduate GPA of 3.0.
 - Professional Dispositions.
 - When: Upon successful completion of Foundations I and II (MUED 619, 620)
- Program Completion
 - Process: Application to graduate and transcript audit completed.
 - Requirements:
 - Minimum overall graduate GPA of 3.0.
 - Completion of all program requirements specified by candidate's track (In-Service, Recital, Final Project, or Thesis)