The B.F.A. Drawing and Painting degree is structured in theoretical readings and in studio assignments that investigate color theory, form, mass, line and composition. Upper level drawing and painting courses stress the discovery of individual aesthetic choices and accessing the inner world of creative imagination and feeling as students explore their own artistic goals. All drawing and painting courses are organized to include technical and aesthetic information while allowing and encouraging students to create thoughtful and personally significant work.

Why Pursue the Arts at Fredonia?

Fredonia offers the most comprehensive array of arts degrees in the SUNY system. Furthermore, at Fredonia you'll experience the best of two worlds: training and performance on par with top conservatories and the core academics of a liberal arts institution.

Conservatory experience enriched by – and enriching – the liberal arts

- On our campus of 4,800 students, 1,000 are majoring in the arts.
- We're all about collaborative artistic endeavors, not only among the arts but with sciences, humanities, education, and business.
- You'll develop your skills and talents, but also your discipline. Almost all of our programs require an audition or portfolio review for admission. Our students are competitive and strive for high achievement, yet are supportive of each other.
- We're fully accredited by the National Arts Accrediting Associations in Music, Theatre, and Art and Design. Music Education degrees — grad and undergrad — are accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP).

Exceptional professors

- Learn from faculty who play, sing, act, compose, choreograph, exhibit, curate, and publish across the country and around the world

What can you do with a degree in Dance, Music, Theatre, or Visual Arts?

- Perform in all kinds of musical ensembles, theatres, film, and web-based media.
- Design and produce graphics, web pages, photography, and video.
- Design and produce lighting, scenery, costumes, and special effects for stage and screen.

Thrive in exceptional facilities

Michael C. Rockefeller Arts Center features a 1,100-seat concert hall, proscenium and black box theatres, art galleries and a dance theatre.
